

60s Pop

Background

The music made popular in the 1960s follows influences of; Rock 'n' roll, RnB, and American Blues. This can be seen through some of the most popular groups in the 60s such as The Beach Boys, The Rolling Stones and The Beatles. The Beatles were incredibly influential in defining the genre, through there international success

Features

Musical

- Simple chords
- Simple structure
- Backing vocals in harmony

Technological

- Early multitracking
- Electric guitar
- Sometimes vocals were double tracked

Revision Resource

[Music Technology382442\]Music_Technology_N5.p](#)

National 5 Music Technology - Course overview and resources - SQA

N5 Music Technology Flashcards | Quizlet

N5 Music Technology Flashcards | QuizletN5 Music Tech - OneDrive

[National 5 \[Music Technology\] - Musipedia](#)

